ESSENCE OF

Stelatoes

Stelatoes, an Indian footwear brand since 2004, has grown from a single store in Delhi to 25 outlets across major cities like Mumbai, Punjab, and Uttar Pradesh. Known for blending style, comfort, and affordability, Stelatoes caters to all generations, earning strong customer loyalty. As we celebrate 20 years, we're preparing for international expansion, bringing our trusted family footwear to global markets.

Director's Letter

Welcome to Stelatoes! It's an honor to connect with you through our catalog. Since our founding in 2004, our mission has been clear: to offer high-quality, stylish footwear at customer-friendly prices. What began as a small idea has grown into a brand that has touched the lives of families across our homeland. While the journey hasn't always been straightforward, every step has been valuable, leading us closer to our vision of becoming the go-to family footwear store. We've learned, grown, and achieved great things along the way, thanks to a dedicated team and the trust of our loyal customers. Today, we're proud to take our first international step, marking a new chapter in our story. The future looks brighter than ever as we continue to innovate and expand. Thank you for being a part of this journey, whether you've been with us since the beginning or have recently joined our family. Together, we're creating something truly special.

WEDDING KICKS

Life is too short for boring shoes

Weddings are special! Where hearts collide, families intertwine, and everyone dances in the symphony of 2 souls that come together to make the perfect forever. While everyone plays an important role in the wedding, it's the bride who brings the real glamour to the occasion. The transition from a woman to something more special has a joyous connotation to it. To add a touch of luxury to it, Stelatoes has launched its Bridal Sneaker Collection. A delicate piece of footwear crafted with love and affection which makes up for the perfect wedding footwear. It is equipped with a comfortable sole that keeps pain at bay. From taking the wedding vows to dancing the night away on stage, the sneakers support her every step of the way. Handcrafted embroidery and designs add that personal touch which makes the bride unique in her own right. A blend of our rich culture with a touch of modesty is what makes the collection stand out. After all, it doesn't get more beautiful than sticking to our roots.

The Authentic Ethnic

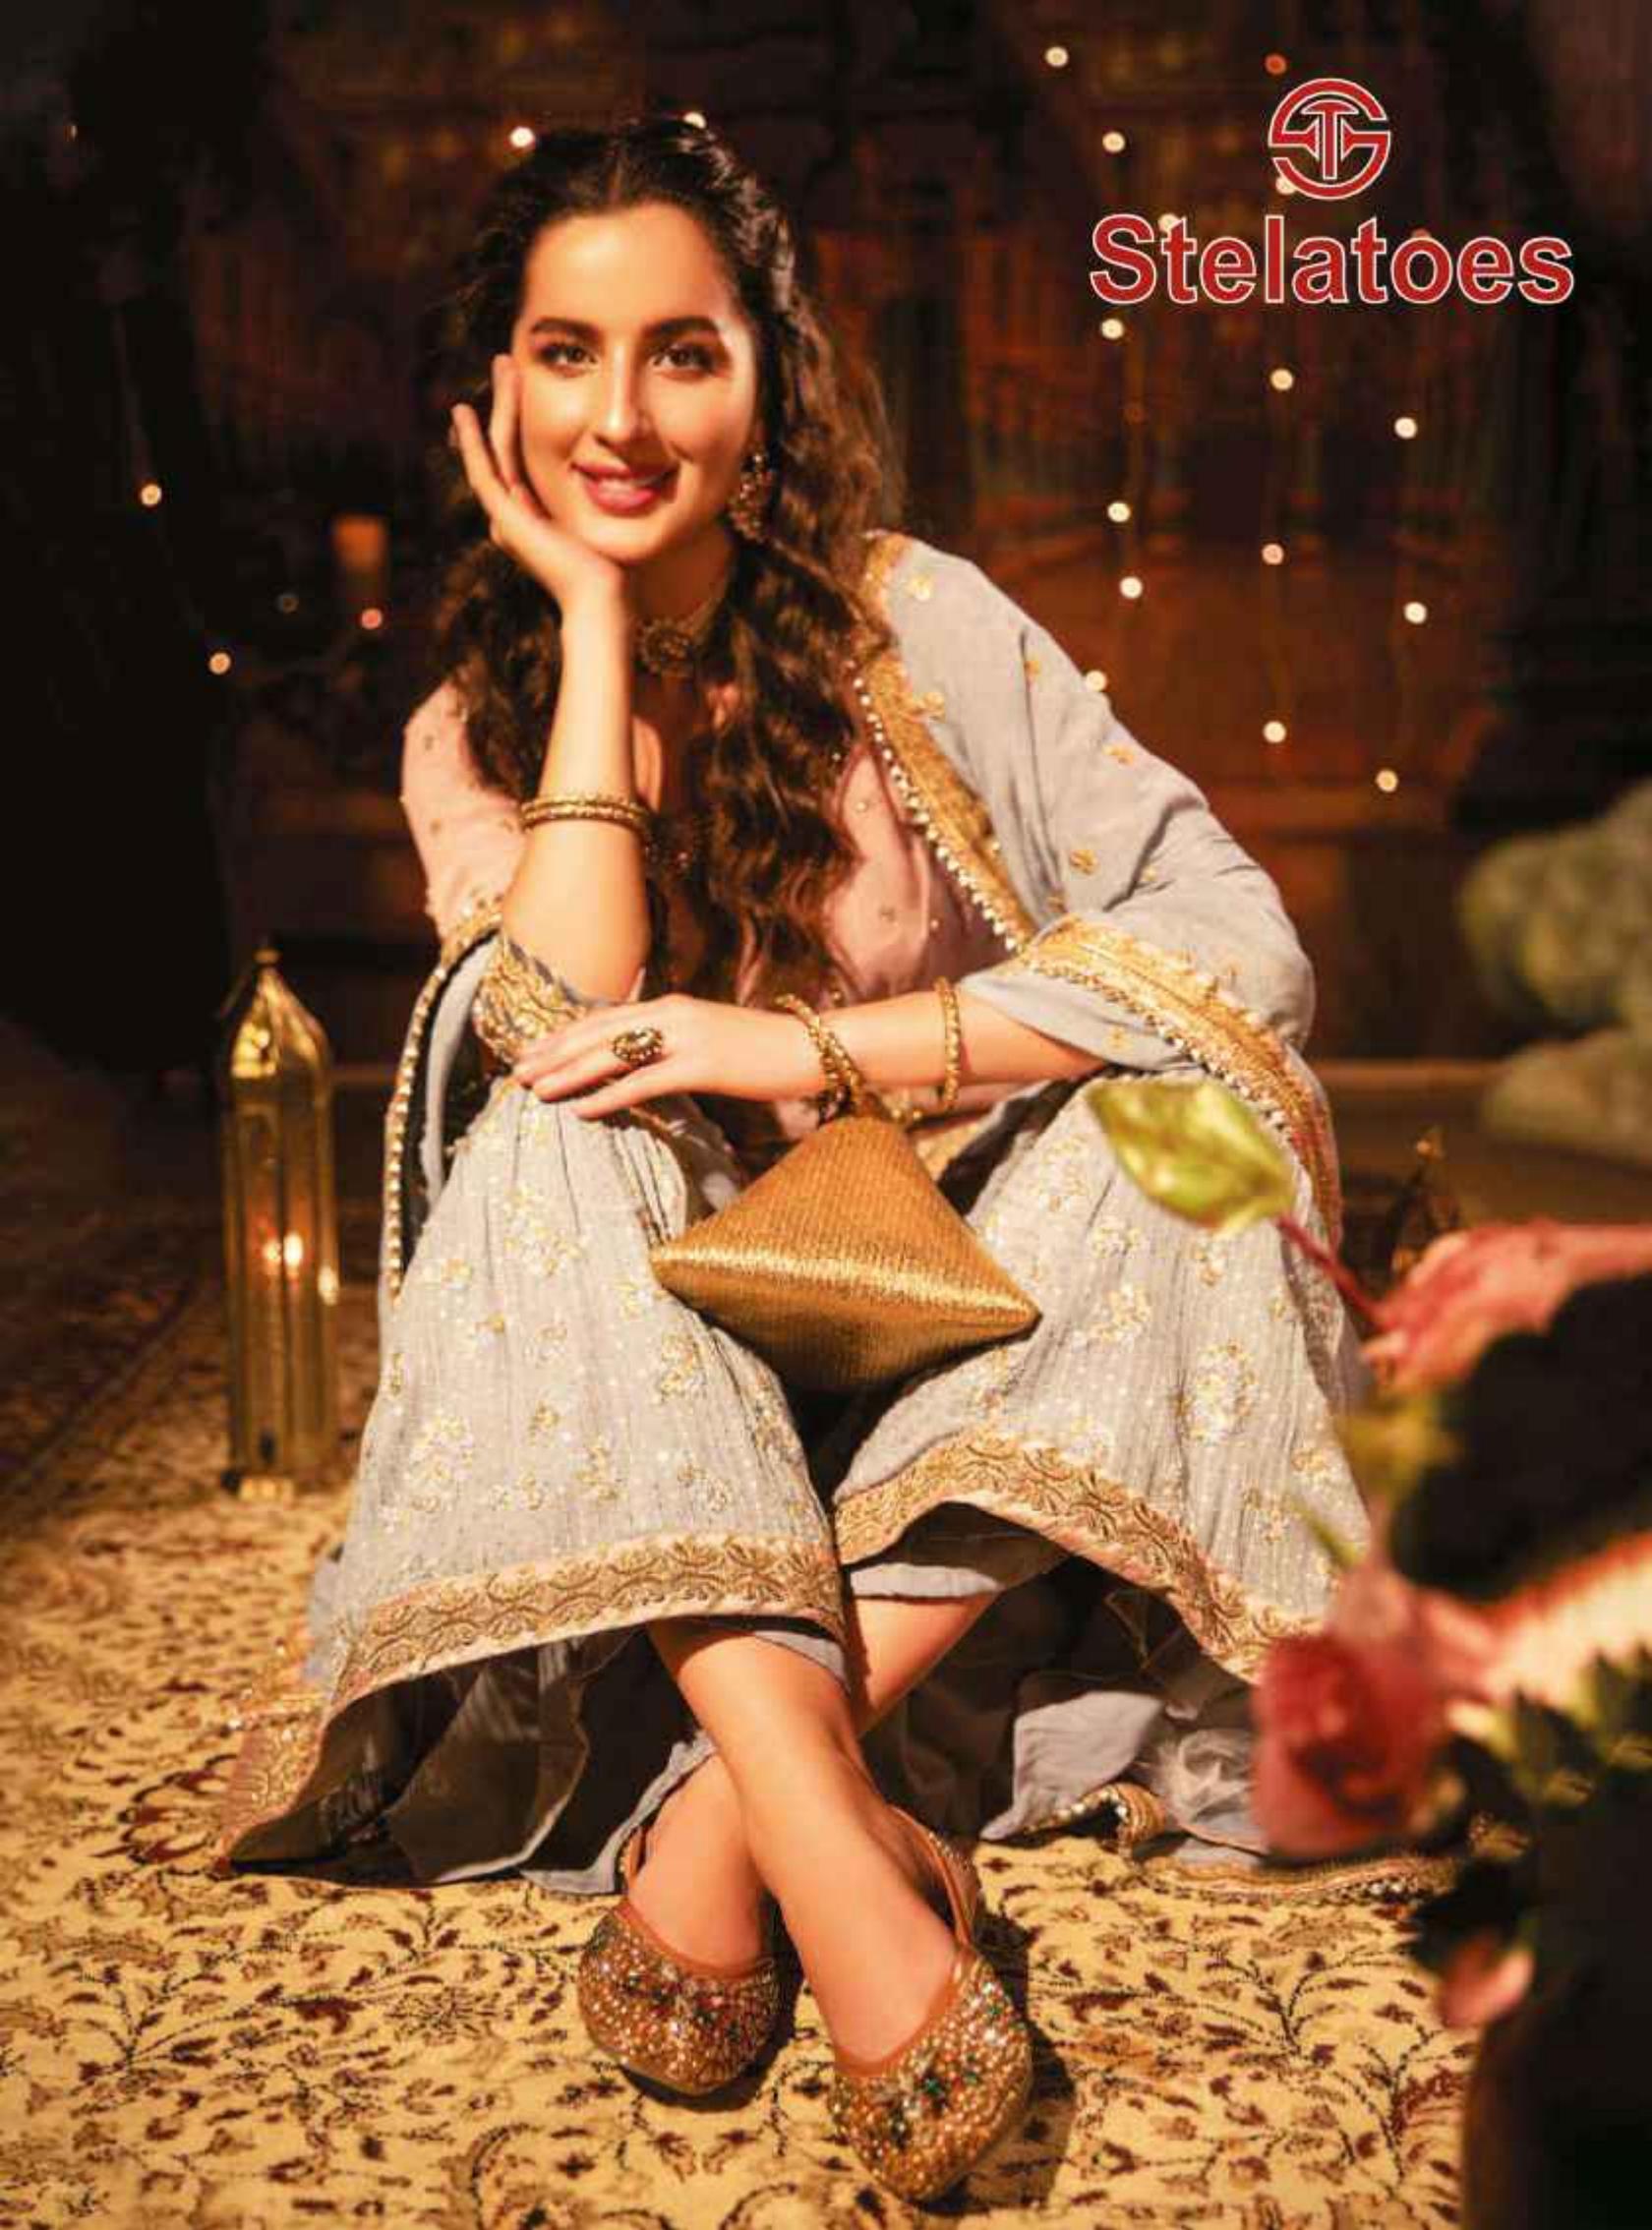

The Heritage Touch

There's something deeply humbling about being reminded of where you come from, and that's the essence of Indian culture. The ceremonies and the rituals reinforce our beliefs in something that has been passed down from generations. Celebrate in Style with ethics from Stelatoes. Effortless footwear that's right on the money when it comes to elementary style and stand-out designs. The craftsmanship makes every piece unique, while every stone and pearl tells a different story. From what has always been yours to what you hold precious, there has been no better form of expression.
